Reflection Arrow

REFLECTION
NUMBER LINE

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- This strategy asks us to take some time to think about our learning; what we have done, where we are in our learning and what to do next.

REFLECTION
NUMBER LINE

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- Using a scale can help us to think about how comfortable we are with learning a topic...

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Why reflect?

- It is really important to reflect or think about what we have done/are doing so we can improve moving forward

We do not learn from experience... we learn from reflecting on experience.

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Why reflect?

- It is really important to reflect or think about what we have done/are doing so we can improve moving forward

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- In the school, we reflect using our reflection arrow/reflection number line.
- You will see this on walls and in your student journal

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- How to use it:
 1. Look at the arrow
 2. Think about your learning/understanding of a topic
 3. Place yourself on the line: 1 being totally lost – 10 totally comfortable understanding the topic completely

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- How to use it (continued):
 4. Think about what you need to do to move up one place in the line: Get help? Ask a question? Learn some keywords? Do some research? Add to an answer? Read more information? Work in a group? Try a new way of presenting the information (e.g. mindmap, graphic etc.)?
 5. If you are at 10, what can you do next time to help you understand the next topic as well as you understand this topic?

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- Great for:
 - Helping you reflect on your learning
 - Figuring out how to improve your learning – just think about one step forward, one way to improve
 - Improving our numeracy skills

Learning Strategy of the Week:

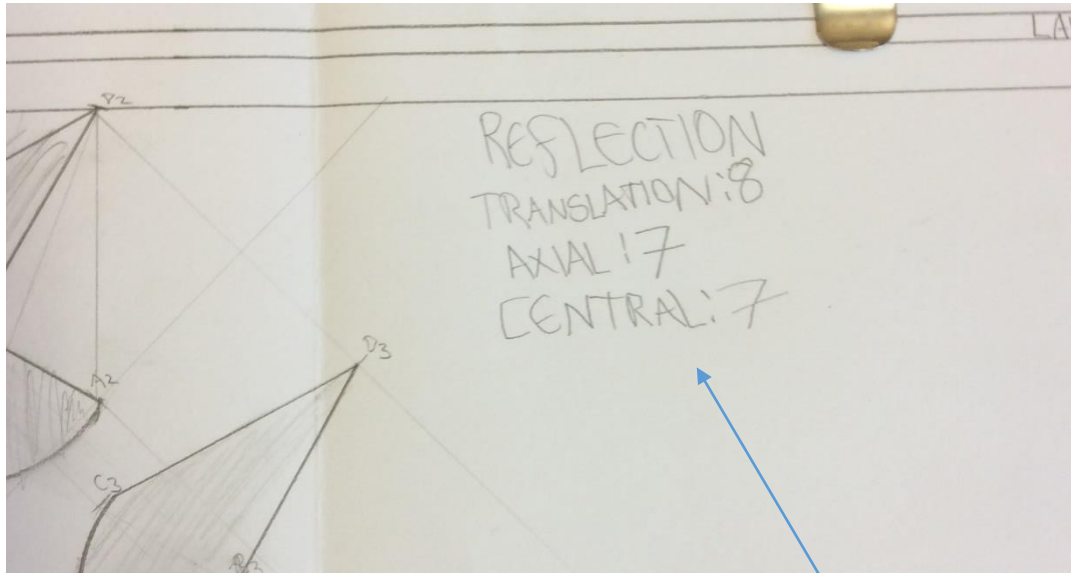

Reflection Arrow

- Can be used for:
 - Learning levels
 - Readiness to learn – how willing am I to learn today?
 - My wellbeing – how am I today?

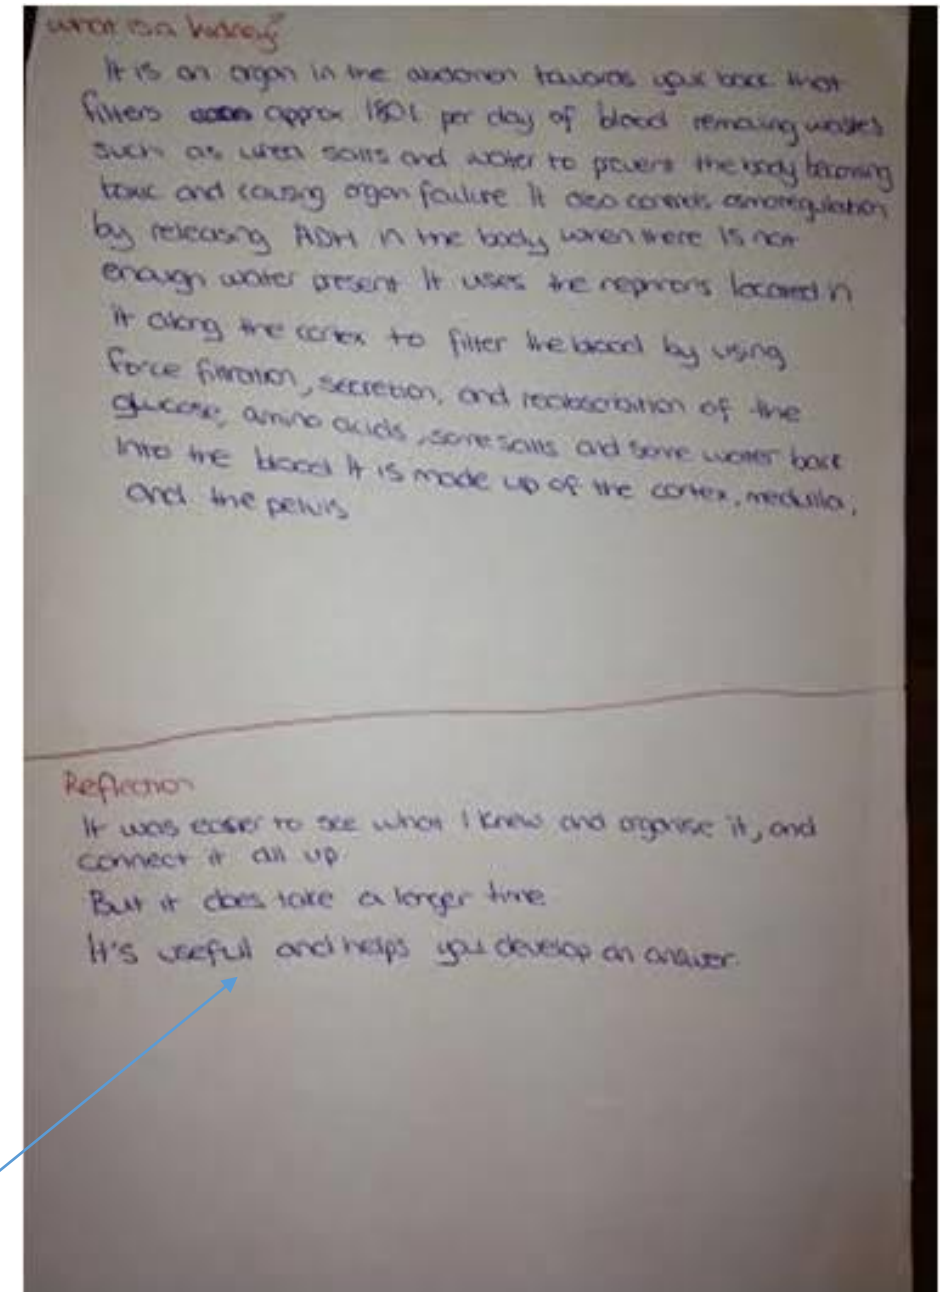

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

Reflection in Tech. Graphics

Reflection in Biology

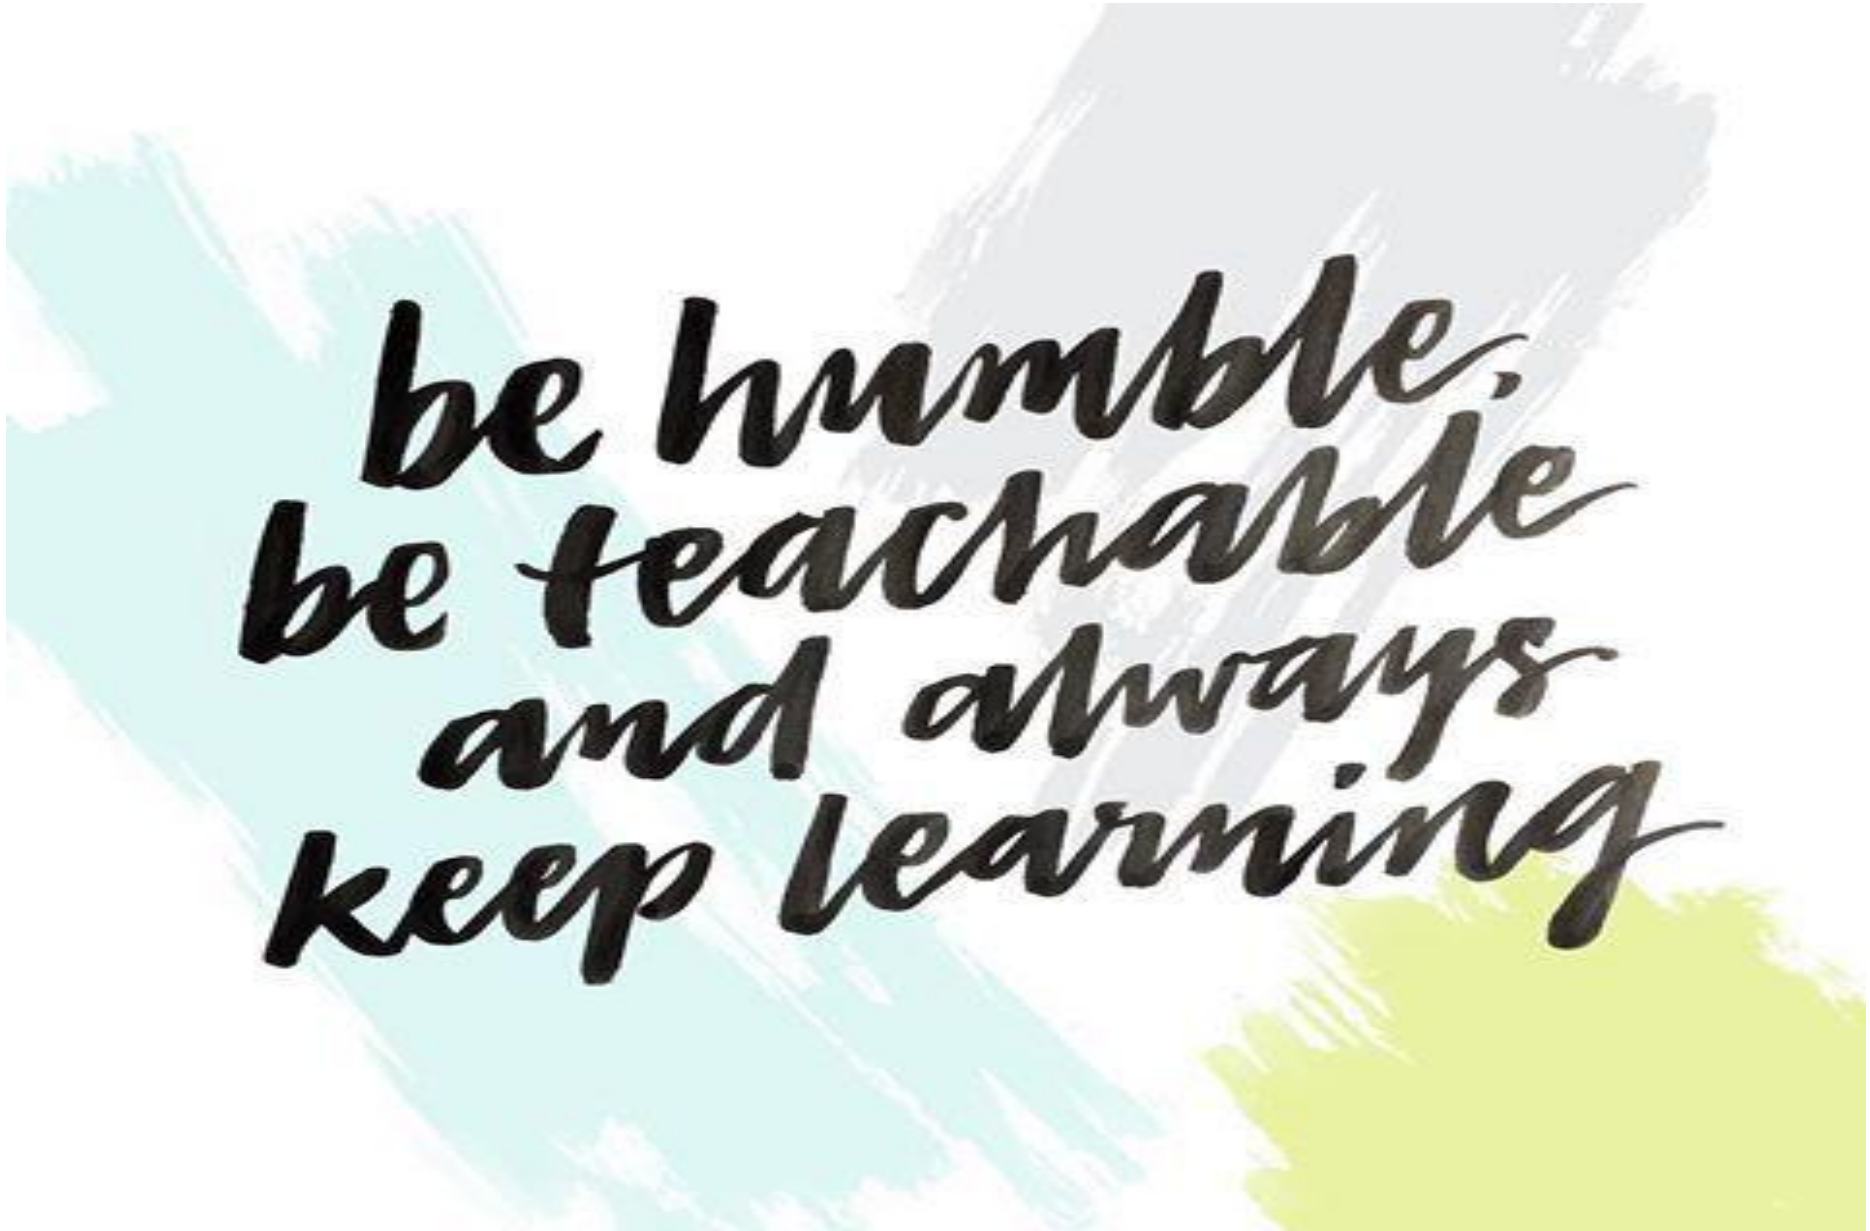

Learning Strategy of the Week:

Reflection Arrow

- Think about using the reflection arrow...
- Where would you place your use of it? 1 – very little, 10 – all the time?
- Where can I use it in the coming days?

be humble,
be teachable and always keep learning

Spend more time listening instead of talking.
You'll be amazed at what you'll learn.
